The Christmas season is upon us and retailers remind all that the shopping season is four days shorter than last year. Prices have risen, personnel is short and prompt attention to gift buying is urged. A good season is forecast.

Unseasonable weather has been experienced. Wellesley has escaped the early November snows that fell not far from us and above normal temperature has prevailed for a number of days. There has been much reference to the terrible driving conditions a year ago when that sneak storm tied things up in Boston and on all major arteries. Fortunately this has not happened thus far this year but the traffic conditions over the past Thanksgiving weekend were worse than usual for this season. They duplicated some of the worst fusts and accidents that mar the summer driving weekends. Forehanded motorists will not let this unseasonably warm weather blind them to the need of anti freeze and snow tires. A quick drop in temperature and a major snow storm are possibilities at any time now.

We hope the comments from Framingham that the former Sudbury Valley school has its eye on the church on Weston rd. prove untrue. The record of this educational experiment does not sound like the sort of group that would improve the educational reputation of our community. Let's stick to normal school patterns and keep out of the headlines for a change.

December 2 was the 89th birthday of August Peterson. You perhaps have noticed this elderly, slightly stooped gentleman as he has performed errands around the Wellesley Post Office and Wellesley sq. He worked for 55 years and travelled Grove st. to the Village daily or even more frequently. When asked why he is doing now his reply was "I'm supposed to be retired but still have enough to do." It looks as though he is just continuing the services he has always performed. Sundays you will find him in attendance at the Village Church where his membership runs back for several decades.

Walter Lenk urges us to tell all townpeople with servicemen overseas or nearer at home, who may not get home for Christmas, that the MARS (Military Affiliate Radio System) is doing a special message. See the addresses and phone numbers of local MARS members in an article elsewhere in this issue.

The Christian Anti-Communism Crusade paints this picture: "The world is filled with conflict and chaos. The Vietnam conflict is far from settled. People's Wars rage in Thailand, Malaysia, Burma, the Philippines and many other countries. Communist China possesses both a raging dementia and thermonuclear power. Chronic war continues between Israel and the Arab world with the communist powers arming and advising the Arabs. Soviet troops occupy Czechoslovakia and threaten Germany. Genocide continues in Biafra. Castro rules Cuba and constantly sends a stream of subversive agents to undermine and subvert the coun-

Wellesley Symphony Holds Pops Concert

A delightfully melodic and dynamic Pops Concert marked the opening of the 20th Anniversary Season of the Wellesley Symphony Orchestra, Friday evening, November 29, at the Wellesley Junior High School.

The orchestra, under the skillful and obviously affectionate direction of Roland Tapland, gave an effective performance, combining a high level of talent with empathy and enjoyment of the tuneful but demanding program. The personable soloists, Elizabeth and Keith Phinney, formed with both vocal and dramatic expertise, singing selections from opera, operettas and today's "musicals." Mr. Phinney is director of the Wellesley Chorus.

The audience had a good time, both young and old. There were many pre-teens who watched and listened without wiggling. The concert was a happy family ex-

Wellesley Players Tryouts December 18

Try-outs for the Wellesley Players' mid-winter production, "Take Her, She's Mine," will be held Wednesday, December 18, at 8:30 p.m. in the Hardy School.

This lively and amusing comedy, directed for the Players by Florence Freeman, first appeared on Broadway in 1961, starring Elizabeth Ashley, Art Carney and Phyllis Thaxter, and was later adapted for films, starring Sandra Dee and James Stewart.

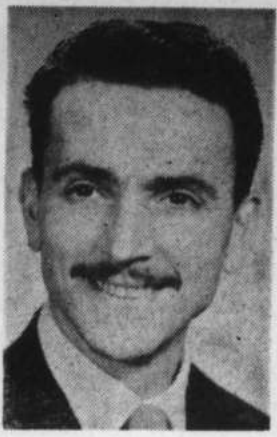

Six women and thirteen men are needed to complete the cast of this fast-moving story of a thoroughly charming girl just leaving home to enter college, her subsequent adventures and misadventures, and the desperate gropings of her equally deluded and triumphant over her growing pains — not to mention his own!

The parts are choice! Be sure to take time off from your pre-holiday activities to stop by the main library for a copy of the play — there's a part in it for you! If you're interested in acting in any phase of the theatre you are welcome to join us at our Christmas Tea, Sunday, December 15 from 3 to 5 p.m. at the home of the William Hatton's, 15 Whiting rd., Wellesley Hills or call our membership chairman at 235-5673.

MBTA Fares Hiked On December 1

The new fares on the Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority's rapid transit and surface lines, the first increase in seven years, went into effect December 1.

The additional tickets and fares are expected to bring in additional annual revenues amounting to at least $11.2 million.

The 20-cent tokens are now obsolete on rapid transit lines and the turnstiles have been converted to accept quarters. The tokens, however, are still being used on the 20-cent surface line fares or redeemed at rapid transit collectors' booths or at the Cashier's Office at 500 Arborway, Jamaica Plain.

No more tokens are being sold as the Authority changes to all-cash fares.

No changes were made in the fares on the commuter railroads, the Middlesex & Boston Street Railway Company, Rapid Transit Inc., or the Authority's "Suburban Service" (buses operated by the former Eastern Mass. Street Railway Company).

The new fares are:

— 25 cents on all rapid transit lines, the high-speed trolley line operating between Riverside and Fenway Park Stations, and on Central Subway streetcars.

— 20 cents on buses, trackless trolleys and other streetcar lines as well as on the local service of the Mattapan high-speed trolley line.

— 50 cents on all three Turnpike Express Bus routes. 50 cents for trips on the Riverside line including the subway.

Town Boards Are Balancing 1968 Budget

With December 21 the deadline for 1969 budgets due for Town Meeting presentation in March, the Wellesley Advisory Committee is concluding arrangements for the payment of Town bills for 1968, bills totaling $48,505.15, from a reserve fund remainder of $25,293.65, (the reserve fund being intended for unexpected expenditures).

Balancing the budget is being achieved in this manner: $10,000 in Police special services (primarily funds for paid details at the New England Telephone office during the recent lengthy strike) may be paid from the General Fund upon receipt of permission from the State Division of Accounts. Selectmen have agreed to seek this permission under a statute granting such payment upon declaration of "an emergency affecting the health or safety of the inhabitants." The $10,000, plus other monies already paid to police, was paid into the General Fund by the telephone company.

Veterans' Benefits totalling $12,000 have been obtained from the General Fund on the same basis. The third largest item on the transfer of funds list is $8000 for School Department, use of facilities. The Advisory Committee has been informed that the School Department will attempt to cover this amount.

Remaining requests totalling $18,503.15 are as follows: non-contributory pensions, $5800 (also under considerations for possible General Fund payment); Fire Department, $3200 for additional vacation pay (the result of Personnel Board action) and $4000 for extra duty in pumping, etc., especially in last spring's floods; Assessors, personnel, $3,150; Law expenses, $500; law personal services, $4,000; and election and registration, $1,000.

Marat/Sade Production At Alumnae Hall

The Wellesley College Theatre will present Marat-Sade, Friday and Saturday, December 6 and 7, at 8 p.m. in Alumnae Hall. The Peter Weiss drama marks the opening of the 1968-69 season for the Theatre. The public is welcome.

The Persecution and Assassination of Jean Paul Marat as Performed by the Inmates of the Asylum of Charenton under the Direction of the Marquis de Sade is the full and revealing title of the play. Richard Silber, Harvard graduate and author of The Revolution of the People, will play Jean Paul Marat; and Stan Bowker, Boston College graduate student, will act the Marquis de Sade. Both are veterans of college theatre and summer stock. Newly West, Wellesley '71, will play the role of Charlotte Corday, and Page Talbot, Wellesley '72, will act Simonne Evard. The cast of 46 includes men from 11 colleges.

Direction is by Paul R. Barstow, lecturer in theatre studies and Director of the Wellesley College Theatre. The bathhouse setting for Marat-Sade is by Eric Levenson, Design Director of the Theatre.
